

WHITE BOX presents
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SIX FEET UNDER

ELECTIONS / FINAL CHARADE

WHITE BOX is pleased to announce the final chapter of Six Feet Under: Elections / Final Charade, a theme-driven annual Summer Series traditionally featuring six proposals by six curators over six years. With this unaccounted for, seventh year, we break all the rules- a bit biblically- extending Six Feet Under into its seventh and final installment, with seven curators over seven weeks, culminating in the last exhibition ever in White Box's 26th Street Chelsea location before we move to our new Bowery location.

The purpose of the series is to offer each curator/artist team a week-long opportunity to tackle this year's theme using White Box's unique architecture and its six feet below ground exhibition space. Acting as a prop, the gallery space is impenetrable, the summer viewer kept at bay and exhibitions are viewed only through White Box's sidewalk-level large window, lobby, and (VideoBox)- an outdoor window.

Elections / Final Charade- a forewarning to 'Sedition', our upcoming election time exhibition- brings an exciting end to this theme-induced variegated summer series with a topic on all our minds: the November 2008 Presidential Elections, possibly the most significant, unpredictable political event in recent history. Seven young, cutting edge, emerging curators are invited to select seven rather particular artists or collectives, who will present and install a work each reflecting on the topic in their own surreptitious ways. Each team will touch upon the new realities and relationships the new societal shift may bring in this plausibly changing political environment we have coming forth.
